

D4 AP Nachrichten

As you prepare for the AP test, you will be reading many texts, listening to many selections and lectures and completing many fill in the blank grammar assignments and projects. In an attempt to promote cultural knowledge as well as to allow you to participate in the themes of this curriculum I would like you to spend some time this semester familiarizing yourself with Nachrichten in Deutschland. My goal with this project is to broaden your knowledge of the world, in addition to increasing your vocabulary and improve your reading pace and understanding, through your reading of authentic texts.

I expect you to read the article auf Deutsch and print it out (attach a link on Edmodo). I would also like you to include a list of at least 10 vocabulary words (Deutsch und English). You will also need to write an 8-10 sentence summary of the article. In addition I would like you to write me a 15-sentence reflection of the article.

You will not be graded on the content or length of your article. Please make sure that the topics you choose are school appropriate and that the length of your article will not inhibit your ability to do the required tasks.
